

Grieg Seafood BC Ltd. - Information Sheet

Grieg BC's commitment is to provide support to organizations in communities where we do business. We believe in giving back to ensure the growth and involvement of healthy communities.

Criteria for Support

Thank you for your interest. At Grieg BC, we receive many annual requests for community support (cash, in-kind product, auction or promotional item) from a wide range of organizations. To qualify, the event or project must directly benefit the community. It should also serve one of the following main areas of focus:

- Arts & Culture
- Health & Wellness
- Sport
- Education

How to apply

If your request fits the outlined criteria, prepare and submit a package including the following:

- A cover letter on organization letterhead, that includes:
 - Name of organization, contact name, phone number and email address
 - Brief description of your organization's activities and mandate
 - Event/project details including a full description, timelines and other contributors of funding for the event/project
 - Recognition opportunities for Grieg BC (website link, newspaper, event program, etc.)
- A completed Grieg BC Application Form ensuring:
 - All questions are completed in full
 - The appropriate official of the organization signs the form
 - You keep a copy of the form for your records

Submitting the application

Requests should be mailed, emailed or faxed at least a month prior to the event or activity. Grieg BC is not responsible for any lost or misdirected application forms.

How applications are assessed

Applications are reviewed on a monthly basis. Grieg BC reserves the right to make all final decisions as to which groups receive support. Due to the demand and our commitment to support a fair and equitable cross-section of as many organizations as possible in various communities, not all applications are approved.
